

AFRICA GRADUATE MENTORSHIP AND COACHING PROGRAMME
(AGMCP)

A MEMORABILIA

BY

OKONKWO, JACINTA
ONYINYECHUKWU

INTRODUCTION

- Africa Graduate Mentoring and Coaching Programme (AGMCP) is a program facilitated by the Interconnections for Making Africa Great Empowered and Sustainable (IMAGES) Initiative.
- The memorabilia comprises the summary of activities, outputs, significant contributions during the one-year fellowship period, and suggestions for the AGMCP team.

ACTIVITIES OF THE FELLOWSHIP YEAR

- Webinar on strategies for writing abstract
- Seminar on similarity index and reference management
- Research4Life MOOC
- The Conversation Africa's course 'Learn to write for the media
- Third annual circularity conference

ACTIVITIES OF THE FELLOWSHIP YEAR CONT'D

- Publication of a chapter in a reputable book
- Publication of a chapter, Prions as Therapeutic Proteins and their Prospect as Drug Delivery Agent in Therapeutic Proteins Against Human Diseases
- Seminar on journal publications
- Marriage relationship and work-life balance
- Seminar on similarity index and reference management

OUTPUTS FROM THE FELLOWSHIP YEAR

- Knowledge of proper abstract writing
- Knowledge of similarity index and reference management
- Participation in the third annual circularity Africa conference: Paradoxes of natural resources in Africa
- Publication of a chapter, Prions as Therapeutic Proteins and their Prospect as Drug Delivery Agent in Therapeutic Proteins Against Human Diseases

OUTPUTS FROM THE FELLOWSHIP YEAR CONT'D

- Certificate of achievement on successful completion of
 - i. Research4Life MOOC on: Access to Global Online Research in Agriculture (AGORA)
 - ii. Research4Life MOOC on: Access to Research for Development and Innovation (ARDI)
 - iii. Research4Life MOOC on: Research for Global Justice (GOALI)
 - iv. Research4Life MOOC on: Research for Health (Hinari)
 - v. Research4Life MOOC on: Online Access to Research in the Environment (OARE)
- The Conversation Africa's course 'Learn to write for the media'
- Completion of Master of Science (M.Sc.) in Biochemistry(Enzymology) dissertation report

SIGNIFICANT CONTRIBUTIONS TO PROFESSIONAL CAREER

- First publication in a reputable journal
- Abstract writing
- Academic writing
- Media writing
- Use of similarity and reference management tools
- Networking

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR AGMCP TEAM

- Mentee-Mentor match-making on area of specialization
- Increased number of participants
- LinkedIn page for AGMCP graduands

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My sincere gratitude goes to

- Dr Olawale Olayide, the coordinator of AGMCP for the opportunity to train young academic scholars.
- Dr Molehin Olorunfemi, for his dedication, understanding, patience, teachings, counseling, and words of encouragement
- Engr & Mrs M. N. Okonkwo, siblings and loved ones for the support, during the course of the fellowship

CONTACT INFORMATION

- Name: Okonkwo, Jacinta Onyinyechukwu
- Email: jacinta_Okonkwo@uniport.edu.ng
- Telephone: 08164603722, 08117738811
- Researchgate: <https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Jacinta-Okonkwo>